

Prevention keeps my husband and me healthy

My husband and I have been using the FLCCC prevention protocol, including ivermectin, for about a month now. We are 63. I have some chronic health issues and he travels a lot for work. We have had no side effects and are so pleased we can actively do something to protect ourselves. We have both also been vaccinated and we use ivermectin as extra protection.

- Trish RN, Atlanta, Georgia